Read the following passage and choose the correct answer

Fame has always attracted people throughout history. Many dream of being recognized, admired, and loved by others. But behind the bright lights of success, there is often a hidden side that few ever see.

Every one of us dreams of becoming famous one day or another. Sportsmen and champions of games and sports enjoy great fame. Film stars, singers and musicians are known all over the world. They have admirers and fans that follow them on social media and hang their photographs on the walls of their houses. Politicians and great men are famous people and their fame goes far and wide. Anyhow, fame isn't easily obtained, but it is the result of hard work and suffering.

The life of famous people isn't an easy one. It is very busy and full of troubles and responsibilities. They appear smiling but in fact, they are unhappy and their time is arranged for them. Newspapers and magazines write about them and sometimes about their private lives, so this annoys them. Their smallest mistakes appear larger by those who dislike them. Though fame has its troubles, a great number of people desire to get it.
